

THE McDOWELL TIMES

Published by The McDowell Times, Inc., every Friday in the year at Keystone, West Virginia.

M. T. WHITTICO Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One Year $2.00 Three Months75
Six Months $1.25 Single Copy25

Subscribers changing their Post Office address must notify this office or else subscriptions will be collected just the same.

Advertising rate card Sent on Request

Entered as second class matter March 22, 1904, at the Post Office at Keystone, W. Va., under Act of March 3, 1879.

PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

When you pay your bills give your newspaper man the first piece of money.

The newspaper man supplies you with the real news you so much need and without which you hesitate to start your daily duties without reading the papers.

One of the most important things in the world today is to have something to read.

Now if you must put off paying any one, be honest enough to take care of your newspaper man.

You know the newspaper men are not wealthy. He seldom ever has a surplus in the bank. Too often men act unkindly by treating the paper men like an orphan child and sometimes content themselves with looking on the paper business as a luxury but ah friends, be assured, "God is not mocked" he expects of you to keep your word about your paper and pay that debt with as legitimate as my other then look the world in the face like a man and a gentle man.

He cannot afford collection expenses. He should not be expected to. If he is courteous enough to sometimes credit you and be lenient, don't you think you should show him equal courtesy by paying him promptly and without making him extra expense.

The newspaper man supplies you with the real news with his money in your pockets than you can pay yours if the other fellow refuses what he is due you.

Fair exchange is no robbery. They certainly are entitled to a square deal not New Deal. Be Fair. Be Just. Now let us hear from you by return mail.

INTERNAL FRICTION SUICIDAL

To win an election by any body means work—Common sense organization and the throwing away of petty jealousies.

Internal factions. Snapping one another has never resulted in anything but defeat—That old proverbial statement.

"A House divided against itself can not stand" is as true to day as when spoken 200 years ago.

Hon. Harry J. Capehart Attend Federal Court Is A Most Busy Man

Thursday of this week Attorney Harry J. Capehart, whose very name is a synonym for the practice of law, a lawyer of extraordinary ability and one of the hard fighters at the bar of any young man in the profession, stopped off on Keystone for a few minutes on his way back to Welch from Bluefield where he had been looking after some federal cases.

Capehart when in Keystone, at the home of his "Birth" asked were especially when speaking of his starting place in public life. He has, no doubt more friends to the square inch than any dozen other men to be found on the map. His friends are legion. He is known in Keystone as a lawyer of the first water and his services are needed, wanted and demanded by more people than by any one other man in this country.

Capehart is the man who was the father of the first and only Anti-Lynching Bill with teeth in it that was ever passed in any Southern state. Then Capehart is a real business man. The Sun is too high for "Shysters" to try to impede his progress. He has a firm foundation. And his practice today, doubly strengthened by his partnership with the versatile and ever, clean lawyer Leon P. Miller make for them the finest Law firm in West Virginia. They are both real students.

WVOD

ALONG ELMO STREET

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE FIRST)

ation has, if the Truth were known caused the South a greater loss in wealth and Prestige than all the Gold Value accrued from the result of the reign of demagogues in the south. And at last John Temple Graves II, of Atlanta, Ga., employs Negro educated Youths to park here, in Dixieland, for life, that a new day is dawning. Strange indeed, but the Negroes who have left the South and with Strangers made their homes have never divorced their love and memory from the South. They have carried Southern traditions of home life and Christianity there, where, never before, Southern cooking and food have become so famous as now in the North and West.

I am told that Greensboro's native Negroes, now citizens of New York, make it a practice to walk by a certain big hotel in New York City just to see if they might get a chance at meeting a Greensboro white man there whom they know back home. Why the Southern Corn-and-reared Negro loves the South is beyond his personal control—Yea, its the command of a higher power than Man—it is due to the law of Love, "in the spirit of Nature." The word native does not mean in all its elements of love the place where one was born for a person may be born at sea, aboard train or in the air. But native means a more sacred and heart-touching thing. It means that the ground upon which one was reared and loves as home is made up of the flesh and bone of his people, fathers, mothers, Sisters, brother, cousins and loving neighbors. For three hundred years and more, Negro and White people have gone back to earth in Dixieland, where, at the moment of the dirge of dust to dust and the litany of ashes to ashes, friends of both races have let drop their tears in the process of burial, at the grave or at the dying hour.

Yea, whatever may be and whatever may have been the wrong imposed one upon the other, white and black of Dixieland, it was not natural but due to the preachments of demagogues, with whose names the future is yet to deal, in God hands.

I have believed it that yet out of the south a voice of truth would some day dare to speak the truth. Strange as it may seem, I have seen both white and black men manifest the greatest physical bravery, while at the same time they were moral cowards, daring to die for the bill, God, but pitiful cowards in the face of truth and human justice.

One thing in the south which has and which gives the lie to the belief that the negro and southern white people hate one another, is the fact that negro servants and white woman of the home love one another. Not only that but there are ties between Negro men and white men of the South which will last through life and death until the tramp shall sound and the dead shall be raised and stand before God to be judged out of their hearts.

Yea, Cast Down Your buckets where you are there is love and opportunity all about you.

The Public Is Cordially Invited

To Visit

The New Beautiful

LARGE

Tailoring Sales Store

Ground Floor--Street Entrance--New Furniture Indirect Lighting--ten to fifteen degrees cooler than on the street We now offer the public the most exclusive Tailoring Sales Room in Welch, with over 4000 selections of any wanted woolen fabric, or of tropical worsteds, Linens and Summer wear all tailored to your individual measure of your own ideas

Paul Galick, the dean of tailors, is in charge of the department of alterations, repairing, cleaning and pressing.

G. A. BRYANT

Bryant's Clothes

Merchants and Miners Bldg. Phone 340, Welch, W. Va. Opposite Lewis Furniture Co., or diagonally across from the State Liquor Store on Wyoming Street.

Expo Beauty

LOVELY Leontine MacGregor of Florida is just one of the beauties gathered from all over the nation to glorify the new 1937 Exposition which continues open at Cleveland through September 3rd at which Billy Rose is presenting the great musical revue on and in the water, The Aquacade Revue. Easy on feet and on purse, the compact 150-acre Exposition has more thrills and sights than any one can see in a day or a week-end.

Cycles to Swim

ELEANOR HOLM JARRETT, former Olympic backstroke swimming champion, finds that pedaling a stationary bicycle keeps her in physical trim for her appearances in Billy Rose's Aquacade at the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland, where she heads a cast of 500 swimmers, singers and dancers in the world's first great water extravaganza. Appearing with her from May 29 to Sept. 6 on the 160-foot floating stage at the 5,000-seat theater, amid lighting equipment three times that of Radio City, are Johnny Weissmuller and Aileen Riggan, also former Olympic champions and motion picture stars.

Life goes empty unless we have a sense that our lives individually and our life nationally are dedicated to some utterly worthy enterprise, crusade, objective.

KEYSTONE LOCALS

Mr. James Vanhook of Beckley was a social visitor in the city last Sunday accompanied by a friend boy were the guests of several of their outstanding friends. Mr. James became a voluntary subscriber to the McDowell Times.

Hon. W. M. Riley head of Keystone local United Mine Workers of America, is a very busy man and because of his experience with mining and because of his close relations and cooperation with United Mine Workers, commends him and his opinions to favorable consideration. It is to be commended to see that a man of his ability and promotion has made no fool of him and without prejudice selfishness or what not he moves in and around among the pleasantly.

The Tri-District News at Northfork has recently installed a new Linotype machine and has additionally equipped their plant with one of the most remarkable supplies imaginable making this plant capable of turning out practically any kind of job printing however, difficult same may be.

Too, the management is ever genial to the public.

Valentine-Hedrick Nuptial — Mr. L. C. Valentine of Kimball, a very popular business man, Mrs. Hattie Hedrick were united in holy wedlock Tuesday evening of this week. This matrimonial tie was officialized by Rev. R. P. Johnson, pastor of Ebenezer Presbyterian Church in Kimball.

Prof. John Hairston, former principal of the Keystone-Eckman Junior High left Thursday of this week for his home in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Ida Wooten of this city who underwent a slight operation at the Providence Hospital last week is reported to be improving very nicely and to the satisfaction and pleasure of her many friends and relatives.

Hon. W. R. Keyser, Editor of the Welch Daily News accompanied by the Hon. Ralph Grimette also of the Welch Daily News enroute from Bluefield where they had been on business stopped for a few minutes at the Times office on business.

Attorney Stewart A. Calhoun accompanied by his son Harold returned last Saturday morning early from Chicago where the son has been attending school.

Thos. Quarles, Chef for the Virginia Supply Company on the yard of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company, was in the city for a few minutes Thursday of this week. He reports business to be good as there is a plenty of coal to be hauled.

Eat THE Best

PURITY MAID

BREAD CAKES PIES

BEST For CHILDREN

MAY COST MORE-WORTH IT

PURITY BAKING CO.

MAKE YOUR DOLLAR Do Its Duty

Compare Our Prices with any Competitor. We can Save You Money.

THE UNITED SUPPLY COMPANY

"Quality First"